IBISH WIT.—The other day a lady fell off the Brooklyn boat into the East river; a poor Irishman sprang over and rescued her. When she was safe on deck again, her husband, who had been a calm spectator of the accident, handed the brave fellow a shilling. Upon some of the bystanders expressing indignation, Pat said, as he pocketed the coin, "Arrah, don't blame the gintleman—he knows best; may hap if I hadn't saved her, he'd have given me a dollar!" 1858 N B Arctic ... 460 ... 320 5300 Arr at Lahaina, Oct 2 S 1 of the Hon. The tobacco in Connecticut is now lying out for drying. Nearly double the quantity of land of any former year has been sown to this crop the present summer. Its value is estimated at $1,000,000. Last year the crop was 10,000 cases, and prices averaged about 17 cents per lb.; what the price of the crop of 1859 will average, remains to be determined by circumstances.

The Smithsonian Institution received by mail a parcel, which, on taking off the envelope, seemed to be a pasteboard box, considerably flattened. On opening it, however, two thriving, living specimens of the curious animal known as the Texas horned frog were discovered; these fellows came all the way from Huntsville, Texas, quite comfortably in Uncle Sam's mail bag, without food or water.

THE PACIFIC Commercial Advertiser.

Georgia is probably the lightest taxed State in the Union. Its State tax is only two-thirds of a mill on the dollar. A man owning $10,000 of property pays only $6 62. Georgia is one of the most flourishing States, also rapidly rising in manufactures as well as 'They have a giant in Ohio who, though but 17 years of age, weighs 896 pounds, and is 71 feet high. He is a son of the celebrated Scotch giant, James Randall, who exhibited himself at Peale's Museum, in the old Masonic Hall, at Philadelphia, some ten or

The total number of houses in Boston in 1728 was bout 3000, of which 1000 were of brick and the rest of wood, and the population, after a settlement of nearly 100 years, amounted to only 12,000. Now the number of buildings is probably upwards of 16,-000, while the population is in the neighborhood of

IRISH WIT .- The other day a lady fell off the welve years ago.

TRADE TRICKS.—A curious fraud in the sale of hay has been discovered in Boston. The hay was so loaded that a person could crawl into the hole left near the bottom of the cart, and in this place a colored man, in the employ of the hay speculator, was in the habit of concealing himself while the hay was being loaded. Of course the live freight was upon the top of the load when it was delivered, and the purchasers little suspected that either themselves or the animated one hundred and fifty pound lump be-fore them had been sold. Some of the purchasers have paid for him a dozen times over, and begin to think it is about time to take possession, and an animated but good natured controversy is going on between two of the largest purchasers, as to which has the best claim to the fellow.

How THEY COLLECT DEBTS IN NEW YORK .- There is in New York a man named Burling, who is the terror of slow debter and has been known to collect a bill when all the aginery of the law had utterly failed. A correspondent of the Boston Post gives the following account of his mode of operations, as recounted by himself.
" Sheriffs and constables! continued he, getting loud and fierce, 'will a sheriff go of a Sunday morn-ing to a parson's house and follow him to church, and walk up the broad aisle with him before all the congregation, and go up the pulpit stairs close to his heels, and slip into the pulpit after him before he can shut the door, and take a seat by his side, and open John Jones's bill full length, and lay it down over the chapter and verse, and tell him : There's that bill of horse hire-pay it before you preach! But that's what I did-and I got my money, too.' And what commission did you charge? ' Fifty per cent.'

Rather strong,' I suggested, 'but still your mode of procedure was strong. Do you often get as much fifty per cent.?"

. When I earn it I get it. Dr. C. of Broadway sent me to dun a fellow who lived back in a yard and kept two bull dogs that he let loose when anybody came to collect honest debts. I went to him with a horse-pistol in each hand and Dr. C.'s bill in my teeth, and made him pay up. What did Dr. C. offer me for getting his sixty dollars? He offered me one dollar. I won't take, it says I. I'll pay no more, says he. Pay me thirty dollars, says I. Get out of my office, or I'll kick you out, says he, and he kicked me out of his door and down the steps into Broadway. I goes across to the ---- hotel and hires a great armchair out of the bar-room, and takes it across the street and plants' it on the curbstone right opposite Dr. C.'s office door, and I lays the bill I had made out on a full sheet of foolscap across my knees, hanging down, so everybody that went by could read in large, black, sanded letters:

Doctor C—— To J. Burling, Dr.

For collecting of Richard Roe.

And all the crowd kept stopping to read, so that there was all the while two or three hundred people standing on the doctor's pavement, and reading first my bill and then his sign, and making their jokes. I had hired the chair for the whole afternoon, but he hadn't stood this more than fifteen minutes before he comes to the door and says, ' Come here, you rascal;' and I went in and took thirty dollars of his money, and left the bill receipted.' ' But, my friend, don't your impudent ways often get you into scrapes ; are you not afraid some one will some day break your head?" ' Break whose head?' he thundered. 'Didn't Col. S. of New Orleans, a man that's killed seven men in duels, when I went to dun him at the Astor House-didn't he grab me by the slack of my breeches, and hold me out the fifth story window, and shake me there above the pavement, and say, 'Shall I let you fall, and break your neck on the stones, or take you in and kick you down stairs?"

'Well,' said I, anxiously, 'what did you do then?' What did I do? I said, Pay me that money and didn't he pull me in and pay every cent?' The intensity of his manner as he thus related his exploits, cannot be rendered on paper, especially when he exclaimed, with closed teeth and the fingers of his round hand cles che !, ' Pay me that money !'
